33 OLD SANTA FE TRAIL
 The owner has an incredible eye and balances modern with old school. Navajo rugs, 20th-century furniture, benches made from old car parts. It's kitschy, either. When my kids come to visit, they stop on jewelry here. ksantafe.com.

AXLE TRUCK
ROVING ARTMOBILE
 My favorite place to go look at art right now is Axle Contemporary, an old truck that's been converted into a gallery showing really eclectic work. They drive around town—you can look up their location online. And since it's mobile, it can reach different audiences. I saw an installation of small paintings recently. You can tell
